

“Long Peace of East Asia since 1979 and West Europe since 1945: Comparison and Implications”

1. Venue: Allen Hall, Yonsei University.
2. Date: August 10
3. Coordinators: Chung-in Moon and Jong Kun Choi (Yonsei University) & Timo Kivimäki (ASEM Education Hub for Peace and Conflict Studies).
4. Organizer: BK 21 Project Team at the Dept. of Political Science, Yonsei
5. Sponsoring Organizations: Global Asia, Institute of East & West Studies, Yonsei-SERI-EU Center, Asia–Europe Foundation (ASEF), Finnish Foreign Ministry.
6. Dissemination of conference outcomes: A special cover feature in Global Asia (preferably Winter issue 2009) by inviting selected articles
7. Registration: www.tnpsc2009.niasconferences.net

August 10 (Mon):

09:00-09:30 Opening Ceremony

Ki-jung Kim, Director of Institute of East-West Studies, Yonsei Univ.
Amb. Wiryono, Chair of ASEM Peace and Conflict Studies Network

09:30- 10:15 Keynote Session

Chair: Honorary Professor Dal Choong Kim, the former IPSA President.

Amb. Wiryono Sastrohandoyo (ASEM Peace Network Chair) :
“Is Conflict Resolution becoming a part of East Asian Peace mechanism?
Experiences of Conflict Resolution in conflicts in Aceh, Cambodia and Mindanao”

10.15-10.30 Coffee Break

10:30-12:30 Panel 2: “Relatively Long Peace Compared: East Asia since 1979 and Europe since 1945

Chair: Chung-in Moon (Yonsei Univ.).

- 1) Stein Tønnesson (PRIO) “Relative Long Peace in East Asia- A European Perspective”
- 2) Jong Kun Choi (Yonsei Univ.), “Relative Long Peace in East Asia: A Liberal Transition Perspective”
- 3) Ihn-Hwi Park (Ewha Womans Univ.) “Long peace in Western Europe: American strategy, European peculiarity, and its implications to East Asia”
- 4) Timo Kivimäki (NIAS): “Profiles of Peace in West Europe and East Asia”.

Discussants : Syrif Alqadrie (Universitas Tanjungpura), Carolina G. Hernandez (Univ. of the Philippines)

12:30-14:00 Lunch hosted by Prof. Ki-jung Kim, IFES Director, and Prof. Sangtu Ko, Yonsei-SERI EU Center Director

14:00-16.00 Panel 3: “Pathways to Peace and Non-Violence in East Asia and Europe: Challenges and Prospects”

Chair: Prof. Ki Jung Kim, Director of IEWS & Professor, Dept of Political Science.

- 1) Chung-in Moon (Yonsei Univ.): “Korean Peace Process”
- 2) Mathilda Lindgren (Uppsala Univ.): “The role of non-violent struggle in East Asian Long Peace.”
- 3) Takako Ueta (Deputy Head, Japanese Mission to EU): “European Peace-Building as Viewed from Japan”
- 4) Pertti Joenniemi (Danish Institute of International Studies) “Peace by Forgetting War: The Case of Nordic European Peace”

Discussants: Jordi Urquell (Autonomous Univ. of Barcelona), Ren Xiao (Fudan Univ.)

16.00 – 16.15 Coffee Break

16.15-17.45 Panel 4 (workshop): Special Graduate Student Session/Roundtable on structures of stable peace (to be led by some of the Senior Scholars in the conference)
- Yonsei Graduate Students interact with ASEM delegates and European Graduate students.

17:45-18:15 Wrap-up Roundtable session: East Asian and West European Recipes for Peace: Can the two continents learn from one another?

Chair: Carolina Hernandez (Univ. of the Philippines)

Panelists: Chung-in Moon, Ki-jung Kim, Stein Tønnesson, Timo Kivimäki, Jong Kun Choi.

18:30-20:30 Dinner hosted by Former Foreign Minister Gong Ro-myong of the East Asia Foundation at Allen Hall Garden.