3. School description (Max. 30 words)

Experimental School of Education Science (ESES) was founded in 1978 under the direction of Vietnam Institute of Education Sciences. ESES caters for all levels of education: primary, lower secondary and upper secondary education. The School aims to provide high quality education implementing innovative and creative teaching methods and tools.

Singapore Polytechnic is a technical school with 45 full-time diploma courses and offers students a holistic, authentic and industry-relevant curriculum, innovative and vibrant learning spaces, and enriching overseas programmes. The students are in the age group of 16 to 19 years.

4. Summary of the Proposed Online Collaboration (Max. 200 words)

The World Health Organisation defines human health as “a state of complete physical, mental and social well-being”. Healthy living demands us to choose appropriate foods, incorporate regular physical activities in our daily routine and practice good hygiene. Additionally, people are recommended to avoid unhealthy habits such as lack of sleep. In this modern world, people, and especially students and professionals are constantly engaged with disruptive social media and digital technologies, neglecting taking care of their health. One of the sustainable development goals (SDG3) adopted by the United Nations is to ensure healthy lives and promote well-being for all ages. The primary aims of this project are to create intuitive awareness among the participants about healthy living, promote physical exercises in day to day life, realise the significance of the choice of healthy foods and the importance of mental health. Participants will also learn appropriate ICT skills to interact with each other on online platforms and understand the importance of working in partnership with others. Participants will have ample opportunities to understand cultural diversity and values.

This project is the second phase of the previous proposal and aims to explore the different aspects of healthy living not covered in the first phase, especially the major diseases and their control measures, health issues and unhealthy food habits prevalent among nations.
