Intercultural Studies in the Social Sciences and Humanities

The Asia Europe Journal, the quarterly academic periodical by the Asia-Europe Foundation (ASEF), publishes interdisciplinary and intercultural studies and research between Asia and Europe in the social sciences and humanities. Fields of interest include various aspects of bilateral relations, comparative studies, Asia area studies from a European perspective or European studies from an Asian viewpoint. Each volume is intended to focus on, if possible, one major theme (such as security, historical experiences, cultural perceptions, gender issues, civic rights, regional integration, etc.). The Asia-Europe Foundation (ASEF) promotes greater mutual understanding between Asia and Europe through intellectual, cultural and people-to-people exchanges. Through ASEF, civil society concerns are included as a vital component of deliberations of the Asia-Europe Meeting (ASEM). ASEF was established in February 1997 by the participating governments of ASEM and has since implemented over 450 projects, engaging over 15,000 direct participants as well as reaching out to a much wider audience in Asia and Europe.
