

CALL FOR PROPOSALS

ASEF Creative Networks encourages the establishment and/or strengthening of bi-regional cultural networks connecting Asia and Europe. Existing and emerging cultural networks are invited to apply.

The Asia-Europe Foundation \(ASEF\) is launching the 2nd call for proposals and welcomes the submission of projects that will take place between 1 April and 30 November 2015. The submission deadline is 15 July 2014.

We, at ASEF, acknowledge the growing importance of cultural networks as an increasingly significant channel of dialogue and co-operation between Asia and Europe in the field of arts and culture. Through this initiative, seek to collaborate with cultural networks, enhance the mobility of cultural professionals and promote sustainable long-term connections between the two regions.

We encourage networks and cultural organisations to submit multilateral proposals that engage several partners and participants from the 49 member countries of the Asia-Europe Meeting (ASEM)¹.

The proposals must meet the following criteria:

Eligibility:

- Applicants and project participants must be from ASEM member countries.
- Projects should be jointly proposed by a minimum of 2 partner organisations/networks (not individuals) from ASEM countries, with at least 1 partner each from Asia and Europe. We welcome multiple project partners.
- Projects should take place between 1 April and 30 November 2015.
- Proposals should include result-oriented projects (e.g. establishment of new networks, joint activity by network members) that facilitate dialogue, collaboration and knowledge exchange between artists & cultural professionals from Asia and Europe.
- Projects should only take place in ASEM countries.
- Online projects have to be managed from ASEM countries.

Other selection criteria include:

- Projects that offer networking opportunities and/or collaborative activities between networks in Asia and Europe;
- The expansion of networks in Asia or Europe into the other region;
- Projects that facilitate knowledge exchange and professional capacity-building;
- Projects that reflect the cultural diversity of Asia and Europe; and,
- Projects that generate tangible outputs and activities (e.g. establishment of new networks, research reports, publications, training programmes, exhibitions etc.).

We will only partially fund the selected projects up to a maximum amount of Singapore Dollars (SGD) 25,000. Additional funding sources have to be identified by the applicants and mentioned in the submitted proposal. Our contribution cannot exceed 50% of the total project budget. It will also not include seed funding or cover operational costs.

The Asia-Europe Foundation (ASEF) promotes understanding, strengthens relationships and facilitates cooperation among the people, institutions and organisations of Asia and Europe. ASEF enhances dialogue, enables exchanges and encourages collaboration across the thematic areas of culture, economy, education, governance, public health and sustainable development. ASEF is a not-for-profit intergovernmental organisation located in Singapore. Founded in 1997, it is the only institution of the Asia-Europe Meeting (ASEM). Together with about 700 partner organisations ASEF has run more than 650 projects, mainly conferences, seminars and workshops. Over 17,000 Asians and Europeans have actively participated in its activities and it has reached much wider audiences through its networks, web-portals, publications, exhibitions and lectures. www.asef.org
