

Asia-Europe Talks On Social Enterprises And The Global Economy – OpEd

Asian and European experts meet in Berlin mid-July to discuss the role of social enterprises in promoting sustainable development.

The meeting, organised by the Asia-Europe Foundation (ASEF) and the British Council, will look at ways in which social enterprises – companies which combine a focus on the common good while using normal business methods and disciplines – are having an impact on the economies of Asia and Europe.

Read the full story at:

<http://www.eurasiareview.com/12072013-asia-europe-talks-on-social-enterprises-and-the-global-economy-oped/>