

Global art groups seek support

KOCHI: Leading international art organisations have come out in support of the Kochi-Muziris Biennale and favoured renewed institutional financial support for the three-month long festival which has just completed a month.

Read the full story <http://tinyurl.com/bezbexf>