

Health Advice

DANGER Chemical Substance Spill

To Public
(School Children, Residents, Workers)

1. Avoid going near to the affected areas.
2. If exposed to the risk of contamination and experience symptoms such as eye irritation, nausea, vomiting, dizziness and shortness of breath, immediately seek treatment at the nearest healthcare facilities.
3. Avoid contact with contaminated clothing or equipment.
4. Wear gloves when cleaning contaminated clothing or equipment.
5. The contaminated clothing and equipment should be washed using clean water and soap then dry under the sun.
6. The contaminated clothing and equipment should be cleaned separately from any other clean clothing or equipment.

Keep track of the latest information and comply instructions from the authorities.

Seek IMMEDIATE treatment at the nearest healthcare facilities if you have the following symptoms:

• Eye Irritation

• Nausea

• Vomiting

• Chest Ache

• Breathing
Difficulty

• Dizziness

• Faint

Kementerian Kesihatan
Malaysia

Wawasan Kesihatan
Sihat Sepanjang Hayat

myhealthkkm

MyHEALTH
www.myhealth.gov.my

Health Advice

DANGER Chemical Substance Spill

To Personnels
(Officers In The Field)

1. Wear personal protective equipment (PPE) such as R95 type face masks, eye goggles, head coverings, protective clothing, boots and two layers of gloves.
2. If exposed to the risk of contamination and experience symptoms such as eye irritation, nausea, vomiting, dizziness and shortness of breath, immediately seek treatment at the nearest healthcare facilities.
3. Avoid contact with contaminated clothing or equipment.
4. Wear gloves when cleaning contaminated clothing or equipment.
5. The contaminated clothing and equipment should be washed using clean water and soap then dry under the sun.
6. The contaminated clothing and equipment should be cleaned separately from any other clean clothing or equipment.

Seek IMMEDIATE treatment at the nearest healthcare facilities if you have the following symptoms:

• Eye Irritation

• Nausea

• Vomiting

• Chest Ache

• Breathing
Difficulty

• Dizziness

• Faint