AEM Finance Ministers to consider regional currencies

Written by TVS  Corporate News  Oct 14, 2012

The recommendations from the 6th Asia-Europe Editors’ Roundtable, “Multiple Currencies for a Multi-polar World?”, will be shared with ASEM Senior Finance Ministry Officials who will be participating at the 10th ASEM Finance Ministers’ Meeting (ASEM FMM 10) in Bangkok, Thailand.

“Given the rise and growth of Asian economies, and China in particular, a regional currency is needed to trade in Asia,” emphasised Dr Paola Subasics, Research Director, International Economics, Chatham House. She added: “The end of the dominance of the dollar in the next decade seems inevitable and the logical reflection of the changing order in the world economy. There is wide consensus that a multicurrency system is the endgame to such a process.”

Dr Subasics moderated the sessions for the 6th Asia-Europe Editors’ Roundtable in Bangkok, Thailand (15 October 2012), organised by the Asia-Europe Foundation (ASEF) and Chatham House. “I strongly view that a multicurrency system would further enhance trade and investment as it helps eliminate several obstacles, such as transaction costs, exchange rate fluctuations, and reduces complexities in administration,” said Mr Chakkit Parangkhanai, the Guest of Honour for the event. Mr Poompanom is the Deputy Permanent Secretary, Ministry of Finance in Thailand.

The recommendations from this daylong seminar will be presented by ASEF to the ASEM Senior Finance Officials on Sunday 14 October 2012. “It is a great opportunity to present the outcomes of the 6th Asia-Europe Editors’ Roundtable immediately to the ASEM Senior Finance Officials. The discussions at the Roundtable highlighted key issues such as moving towards a multi-polar currency system and a more effective system of maintaining global financial stability. These are pertinent to discussions on reforming the existing international monetary system,” remarked Mr European Warnecke, Deputy Executive Director, ASEF, who chaired the Roundtable in Bangkok (15 October 2012).

The 6th Asia-Europe Editors’ Roundtable, gathered 24 financial experts and senior media commentators from 17 countries. Speakers of the sessions included: Dr Jin Ho Park (Asian Development Bank Institute), Mr Jes Winding (服务于International), Mr Xu Qinyue (Chinese Academy of Social Sciences), Mr David Pilling (Financial Times), Mr Umesh Pandey (Bangkok Post), Mr Pierre Reunis (Le Figaro).

The event concluded with a Closing Reception on the eve of the ASEM FMM 10 (14-15 October 2012) at the InterContinental Hotel in Bangkok, where participants from the Roundtable joined members of the diplomatic corps, local media and academia.

The outcomes of the Roundtable discussion will be later published on ASEF’s website for public dissemination. Currently the recommendations are available at http://www.asianweekly.com/Story/772