

ESiA Advisory Group Meeting and Public Seminar

University of Macao

12 March 2009

Date	Time	Activity
11 March	20h30	Informal Welcome Dinner at Hotel

12 March	14h30	Assemble at the hotel for minibus transfer to the University of Macao
	15h00-16h30 Venue: Meeting Room L105, University of Macao	ESiA Interim Advisory Group Meeting: Session 1 Co-chaired by Prof Martin Holland and Mr. Peter Ryan

Topics of Discussion for Session 1

- Summary of Main Outcomes of 3rd ESiA Advisory Group Meeting
- Discussion of topics and activities in 2009 and 2010
  - "EU through the Eyes of Asia" Phase III – Wrap up, content, publication strategy, shared experiences from VIP team leaders, strengths and weaknesses
  - "EU through the Eyes of Asia" Phase IV – New partnerships, team structures, opening event, Methodology workshop, interim workshop, wrap up event
  - Asia-Europe Lecture Series (October/November 2009, 5 destinations in Europe) – outlining host institutions, potential speakers and topics.
  - "ESiA Young Academic Workshop" series – publication of research papers, planning of the 2010 workshop in Asia, recruitment of participants.
  - Book Launch series – merits of events, outreach potential, sustainability for future publications, local outcomes.

	16h30-16h45	Coffee/Tea Break
	16h45-18h00	Continuation of Meeting Session 2 Co-chaired by Prof Martin Holland and Mr. Peter Ryan
Topics of Discussion for Session 2
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Discussion of topics and activities in 2009 and 2010 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>▪ Brussels Briefing – Planned one day Roundtable event to discuss the findings of the “EU through the Eyes of Asia” study findings with up to 30 Brussels based stakeholders. – discuss how to deliver the findings, link in media and to make the best of this unique platform.</li> <li>▪ Publications (“The Future of European Studies in Asia”) – promoting the latest publication, discussion of findings, plan for future volumes</li> </ul> </li> <li>- A new vision for ESiA <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>▪ Communications and Press Strategy – communicating the ESiA network and its projects, developing media links and participation at event, developing ESiA e-monitor, planned re-vamp of ESiA website, promoting publications.</li> <li>▪ Open the floor for suggestions of new innovative initiatives for the ESiA network to pursue.</li> <li>▪ Developing a new role for Advisory group members</li> </ul> </li> <li>- Planning the 5th ESiA Advisory Group Meeting and Conclusions</li> </ul>
	18h00-18h30	Coffee/Tea Break
	18h30-20h00 Venue: Auditorium II	Jean Monnet Seminar:

Jean Monnet Seminar

This Seminar is offered as part of the Master of Law Program in European Union Law, International Law and Comparative Law and the Jean Monnet Chair

European Union-Asia Relations: a Research Agenda

Speakers:

Professor Martin Holland

Jean Monnet Chair; Director, National Centre for Research on Europe, University of Canterbury, New Zealand

Professor Dai Bingran

Jean Monnet Chair; Jean Monnet Prize 2008; Centre for European Studies, Fudan University, China

Professor Sung-Hoon Park

Professor, Graduate School of International Studies, Korea University, South Korea

Mr. Peter Ryan

Director for Intellectual Exchange, Asia-Europe Foundation

(European Studies in Asia - Board)

Language: English

All are Welcome

Organized in co-operation with the Institute for Advanced Legal Studies, Faculty of Law, University of Macau

	20h15	Assemble for transfer to Restaurant
	20h30	Closing Dinner at Clube Militar de Macau
	22h30	Assemble for transfer to hotel

PARTICIPANTS

Dr. CHAN Ka Lok, Kenneth

Associate Professor
Department of Government and International Studies
Hong Kong Baptist University
China

Chan Ka Lok, Kenneth, received his D.Phil. in Politics from Nuffield College, University of Oxford, United Kingdom, and is currently Associate Professor at the Department of Government and International Studies, Hong Kong Baptist University, China. He has also taught at the University of Warsaw and the University of Gdansk in Poland. In recent years he has taught for the Masters Programme in European Studies at the Institute of European Studies at the University of Macao, China. His interests include post-Communist politics, democratisation, British politics, European Union (EU) politics, Hong Kong politics and East European languages. Recent research outputs concern the politics of electoral reforms in Post-Communist Europe and the Perceptions of the EU in the Asia-Pacific region. He has published articles in Europe-Asia studies, electoral studies, party politics, West European politics, the Oxford International Review, the Central and East European Political Science Review, the International Journal of Social Psychiatry, the Asian Journal of Social Science, Studia Polityczna (Poland), Družboslovne Razprave (Slovenia), Open Times (China), and the Hong Kong Journal of Social Sciences.

Prof. DAI Bingran

Jean Monnet Chair
Center for European Studies
Fudan University
China

Dai Bingran is Professor and Honourable Director of the Centre for European Studies, Fudan University, China. He began his academic career on European integration studies in the late 1990s, and has since been actively involved in both teaching and research. He became Jean Monnet Chair in Economics in 2001, and under his directorship, the Fudan Centre was awarded the Jean Monnet European Studies Centre of Excellence in 2004. Nationally, he is Vice Chairman of the Chinese Association of European Studies, Vice Chairman and Secretary General of the Chinese Society for EU Studies, and Chairman of the Chinese Society for European Economic Studies. Regionally, he is Vice President of the Shanghai Institute of European Studies.

Prof. Xinning SONG

Jean Monnet Chair
Centre for European Studies
Renmin University of China and
Senior Research Fellow
Comparative Regional Integration Studies-United Nations University

Xinning Song has been the Senior Research Fellow at United Nations University – Comparative Regional Integration Studies (UNU-CRIS), Brugge, Belgium, since June 2007. He is also the Jean Monnet Professor for European Integration Studies at Renmin University of China in Beijing. He had been the Director of Centre for European Studies at Renmin University of China for twelve years. He was the Vice Chair and then the Associate Dean of the School of International Studies at the university from 1988 to 2005. Prof. Song obtained his PhD in Political Science from Renmin University of China. He was a Research Scholar at London School of Economics and Political Science in 1991-1992, and Fulbright Professor at University of California, San Diego and George Washington University in the United States in 1995-1996. His main research fields are international political economy, comparative regionalism, European politics and external relations, Chinese politics and foreign policy. He is the member of ISA, BISA, China Association of European Studies and China Association of Asian Pacific Studies. He is the member of Editorial or Advisory Board of various academic journals including Pacific Review, Global Society, Journal of European Integration, International Spectator, Review of Chinese Social Science, China Journal of European Studies, and so forth.

Prof. Cornelis Pieter Frederik LUHULIMA

Senior Researcher
European Studies Programme
Universitas Indonesia

Cornelis Luhulima was a Member of the Eminent Persons Group on the Association of Southeast Asian Nations (ASEAN) Vision 2020 and has been a Researcher at the Indonesian Institute of Sciences, Jakarta, since 1964. He has been heavily involved in policy studies and proposals on Indonesia's foreign policy since 1966, particularly Indonesia's ASEAN policies. He is Project Manager of the International Area Studies Program of the National Institute for Cultural Studies, Indonesian Institute of Sciences (1973-1980), and lectured at the Indonesian Army and Naval Staff Colleges, the National Institute of Defense, and the Foreign Office Training Institute for career diplomats since 1974, while serving as the Executive Secretary of the National Institute of Cultural Studies, Indonesian Institute of Sciences from 1971-1980. Since 1984, Luhulima has been a member of the Board of Advisors for the Indonesian Ministry of Foreign Affairs. At the same time, he is a Senior Fellow at the Centre for Strategic and International Studies and a Research Professor of International Relations at the Indonesian Institute of Sciences.

Dr. PHAM Quang Minh

Dean
Department of International Relations
Vietnam National University

Having received a PhD in Southeast Asian Studies from Humboldt University in Germany, Pham Quang Minh became Vice Dean and then Dean of the Faculty of International Studies, Vietnam National University-Hanoi, a well-known university in the country. He is the co-ordinator of several international projects such as "Vietnam's access into WTO" supported by the German Konrad Adenauer Foundation, and "Renovating the Undergraduate Teaching of International Relations/Studies in Vietnam" supported by the Ford Foundation. His dissertation was on land reform in Vietnam from 1950s to the 1980s, which is still a topic of debate in the modern history of Vietnam, and was published in Germany in 2002. Among his current interests and concerns are international relations and politics.

H.E. Ambassador Rosario MANALO

Director
European Studies Program
Ateneo de Manila University
The Philippines

Ambassador Rosario Manalo was Undersecretary of Foreign Affairs, the Philippines, in charge of International Economic Relations from 1997 to 2001. She served as Philippine Ambassador to Sweden, Norway, Finland, Estonia, Latvia and Lithuania; France and Portugal; Kingdom of Belgium and Grand Duchy of Luxembourg. Manalo is the Philippine representative and one of only twelve elected experts to the New York-based United Nations Committee monitoring the implementation of the Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination Against Women or CEDAW from 1992 to 2002; she became Chairperson of the Committee in 2005. Ambassador Manalo is currently the Director of the European Studies Program in Ateneo de Manila University.

Prof. Sung-Hoon Park

Professor
Graduate School of International Studies
Korea University

Sung-Hoon Park has been Professor of Economics and International Trade at the Graduate School of International Studies (GSIS), Korea University since 1997. He has held a research fellowship at Korea Institute for International Economic Policy (KIEP) during 1993-1997, and visiting professorships at Macau Institute of European Studies (2000 - now), Ritsumeikan University (2003) and ASEF University (2000, 2004), etc.

For 2003/2004 academic year, he was awarded a Fulbright Visiting Scholarship to the Graduate School of International Relations and Pacific Studies (IR/PS) at University of California , San Diego, United States . He has been doing research on international trade policy including WTO rules, European and Asian economic integration, and Korea 's external economic policies. He was nominated Expert of APEC's IAP Peer Review Study of the Russian Federation in 2005, and delivered a thorough analysis of liberalisation policies of the Russian Federation . He is currently the Korean representative of the newly established EU-NESCA Dialogue, which has recently been awarded a major research project by the European Commission

Prof. Apirat Petchsiri

Director
Multidisciplinary Department of European Studies
Chulalongkorn University, Thailand

Apirat Petchsiri is currently Associate Professor of Law, Faculty of Law, Chulalongkorn University, Thailand, and Counsellor, Interdisciplinary Department of European Studies, Graduate School, Chulalongkorn University, Thailand.

He graduated with a law degree (with honours) from Thammasat University, Thailand, and an additional degree in criminal justice from New York University School of Law, United States. He obtained a Doctor of Judicial Science (JSD), New York University School of Law, United States.

Prof Datuk Roziah Omar

Executive Director
Asia-Europe Institute
University of Malaya

Roziah Omar is a Professor in the Department of Anthropology at the Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences and Executive Director at the Asia-Europe Institute (AEI), University of Malaya. She graduated with a PhD degree from University of California, Berkeley. She specializes in reproductive health and rights, social development, social health, gerontology and women studies. She enhances AEI through global research, international networking and publications.

Prof Hamidin Abd Hamid,

Deputy Director
Asia-Europe Institute
University of Malaya

Hamidin Abd Hamid is an Associate Professor in the History Department of University of Malaya and who is currently Deputy Executive Director of the Asia-Europe Institute.

His Area of expertise is in African Studies and Malaysian Studies. His Recent publications include Malaysia-Africa Relations: Searching for Common Goals; The History of Registrar of Titles; Registrar of Titles Cooperatives; and Tun Hussein Onn: Father of Unity

CO-ORGANISERS

NCRE

Prof. Martin HOLLAND

Director
National Centre for Research on Europe
University of Canterbury

Martin Holland holds the Jean Monnet Chair of European Integration and International Relations and is the Director of the National Centre for Research on Europe (NCRE) at the University of Canterbury. Since writing his PhD at the University of Exeter, United Kingdom, on the 1979 direct elections to the European Parliament, he has specialised in the analysis of the European Union (EU)'s external relations, initially in terms of European Political Co-operation and latterly through the Common Foreign and Security Policy (CFSP).

His research on EU-South African relations during the apartheid and post-apartheid eras is particularly well-known and saw Holland involved as a practitioner in one of the EU's first election observer missions to monitor the first democratic non-racial South African election in 1994. More recently, he has focused his research interests most broadly on the EU's global development policy and on the perceptions of the EU in third countries.

Dr. Natalia CHABAN

Deputy Director
National Centre for Research on Europe
University of Canterbury

Natalia Chaban is the Deputy Director of the National Centre for Research on Europe (NCRE), University of Canterbury. She is currently co-ordinating the cross-national research project 'Public, Elite and Media Perceptions of the EU in Asia Pacific Region - Australia, New Zealand, South Korea, and Thailand: a comparative study'. She is actively pursuing her research interests in cognitive and semiotic aspects of political and mass media discourses, image studies and national identity studies in the European Union (EU) context.

ASEF

Mr. Peter Ryan

Director for Intellectual Exchange
Asia-Europe Foundation

Peter Ryan, a career diplomat from Ireland, joined ASEF as the Director of the Intellectual Exchange Department in September 2006. He received his undergraduate and postgraduate degrees from the National University of Ireland in Dublin and worked in Ireland and Australia in the banking sector before joining the Department of Foreign Affairs of Ireland in 1994.

His strong interest in Asian-European relations stems from his appointments to the Irish Embassies in Japan, Korea and Singapore. In addition, he served as Deputy Director, Asia-Pacific in the Bilateral Economic Relations Division of the Department of Foreign Affairs.

Prior to joining ASEF he was based in Singapore covering eBusiness and New Technologies in the Asia-Pacific Region for the Department of Communications, Marine and Natural Resources of Ireland.

Peter Ryan is married with two children.

Mr. Ronan Lenihan

Project Officer
Intellectual Exchange
Asia-Europe Foundation

Ronan Lenihan, is the Project Officer for the European Studies in Asia (ESiA) network, an initiative of the Asia-Europe Foundation (ASEF).

He graduated from Dublin City University with a Bachelor of Arts in Communication Studies in 2006 and following this completed his MA in Globalisation and International Relations at the Centre for International Studies at Dublin City University. Prior to joining ASEF, he worked in the private sector with Rabobank International based in Dublin.

UNIVERSITY OF MACAO

Assoc Prof. Paulo Canelas de Castro

Jean Monnet Chair
Faculty of Law
University of Macao

Prof. Paulo Canelas de Castro is the Jean Monnet Chair at the Faculty of Law at the University of Macao and is on leave from the University of Coimbra, Portugal. Prof. Canelas de Castro has worked extensively on issues pertaining to the EU and the Rule of Law. He has worked extensively on water related policy issues, advising at country and Regional Organisations levels on water usage policy.

Prof. Canelas de Castro has showed up as Counsel before the International Court of Justice and the European Court of Justice. Most recently he was a founding member of the European Community Studies Association, Macau (ECSA, Macau), of which he stands as the President of the Board of Directors. His work at the University of Macao also included a series of Jean Monnet Seminars, bringing high level experts on the EU to Macao to discuss a wide range of important EU related issues. .