Invitation to Apply

The Asia-Europe Foundation (ASEF) welcomes applications for the 12th ASEF Journalists' Seminar (ASEFJS12), to be held on 13-14 December 2019 in Madrid, Spain. ASEFJS12 is a side event of the 14th ASEM Foreign Ministers' Meeting (ASEMFMM14).

Travels to and from Madrid, accommodation, and meals during the programme will be covered by the organisers. Conditions apply (see: Conditions for Subsidy).

About ASEFJS12

ASEFJS12 is a training-oriented event that offers young journalists from Asia and Europe the chance to come together to share their professional media experiences and perspectives from national and regional levels.

The event, themed 'Media Trust & Information in the Digital Age', is aimed at providing young journalists with the tools needed to thrive in an uncertain media climate.

About Us

The Asia-Europe Foundation (ASEF) promotes understanding, strengthens relationships and facilitates cooperation among the people, institutions and organisations of Asia and Europe. ASEF enhances dialogue, enables exchanges and encourages collaboration across the thematic areas of culture, education, governance, economy, sustainable development, public health and media.

ASEF is an intergovernmental not-for-profit organisation located in Singapore. Founded in 1997, it is the only institution of the Asia-Europe Meeting (ASEM).

ASEF runs more than 25 projects a year, consisting of around 100 activities, mainly conferences, seminars, workshops, lectures, publications, and online platforms, together with about 150 partner organisations. Each year over 3,000 Asians and Europeans participate in ASEF's activities, and much wider audiences are reached through its various events, networks and web-portals.
