

Asia-Pacific aviation leaders begin gathering with avian flu concerns

APR. 22: A conference of executives from aviation regulatory agencies, airports and airlines in the Asia-Pacific region is scheduled to open in Manila on Monday with discussions on collaboration in medical emergency situations such as the avian flu on top of its agenda.

Read the full story at

<http://skift.com/2013/04/22/asia-pacific-aviation-leaders-begin-gathering-with-avian-flu-concerns/>

(c)2013 the Asia News Network (Hamburg, Germany). Distributed by MCT Information Services.