Leaders of the Future Bootcamp (LFB) is a knowledge-sharing platform that focuses on skills trainings for students and professionals across the globe in key areas identified by the World Economic Forum’s ‘Future of Jobs' report.

Event Structure (Virtual)

- Main Event- 26th & 27th June 2021, 10:00-13:00 hrs UTC
  Hourly sessions from 10 am UTC to 1 pm UTC will be conducted by subject matter experts & opinion leaders over the course of a weekend from 26th to 27th June.

- Monthly Follow Up sessions- July to November 2021
  Monthly follow up sessions will be conducted by participants of ASEF Young Leaders Summit that will focus on specific topics & networking of participants.

Speakers

Main event speakers include:
1. Ahmad Ashkar, CEO Hult Prize
2. Leonie Nagarajan, Director ASEFedu
3. Raheel Bodla, Success Coach & Ex-Tesla
4. Dr Una McCarthy Fakhry, Director STEM for Cambodia
5. Koh Seng Choon, Founder Project Dignity

What to expect

- Listen to how leaders across the globe have leveraged 4th industrial revolution to adapt for COVID.
- Get trainings for topics such as complex problem solving, technology design, analytical thinking, innovation & ideation
- Network with participants from across the globe & get a peek into different tech ecosystems

Target Audience

1. 18-30 year olds
2. Students and Entry level professionals
3. Keen interest in learning what is the ‘Future of Work’

LFB 3.0 is organized by Global Shapers Islamabad Hub, Solutions for a New Age, and Qissa Khwanan. We are supported by Asia Europe Foundation, National Incubation Center Peshawar, Globallis IR, & Sustainable Development Forum Green Window.