About ASEF

ASEF is an intergovernmental not-for-profit organisation located in Singapore. Founded in 1997, it is the only institution of the Asia-Europe Meeting (ASEM).¹ ASEF promotes understanding, strengthens relationships, and facilitates cooperation among the people, institutions and organisations of Asia and Europe. It enhances dialogue, enables exchanges and encourages collaboration across the seven thematic areas of culture, education, governance, sustainable development, economy, and public health. For more information, please visit www.ASEF.org.

About the ASEF Communications Department (COM)

COM promotes Asia-Europe cooperation by advancing awareness and knowledge about ASEF, ASEM and key issues of Asia-Europe relations. Aimed at a diverse range of constituencies including the media and general public, COM’s activities foster greater mutual understanding between Asia and Europe. Among the seven thematic areas of ASEF, COM is responsible for Media. Through its media projects, COM creates unique networking platforms for the exchange of views and ideas, as well as cooperation among media professionals from Asia and Europe.

COM is also responsible for ASEF’s corporate communications. COM supports the Executive Director on ASEF’s messaging and outreach, and is custodian for ASEF’s brand and identity. It manages the ASEF website and related digital assets, and coordinates project communication by ASEF Project Departments (PDs) and ASEM-related bodies.

About the Position

ASEF is looking for a hardworking, experienced and creative Senior Project Executive (SPE), who is also a good team player and can contribute to the achievement and furthering of COM’s mission. He/she reports to the Director of Communications and works closely with rest of the COM team.
